

Melissa Martin, M.S., CCC

Melissa Martin is a Mental Health Counselor in Private Practice. She has undergraduate degrees in Psychology, a Master's Degree in Mental Health Counseling, is certified with the Canadian Counseling and Psychotherapy Association, and is in Private Practice. She works with children, adolescents, teens, adults and couples confronted by emotional, mental health and life challenges. She is the author of two books, magazine and newspaper articles, two self-help columns, and has provided guest expert radio interviews. Melissa was the recipient of the 2006 NLOWE Entrepreneur of the Year Award for the Western Region.