Melissa Lloyd is a Self-Care Through Creativity advocate who guides individuals to more calm, clarity, creativity and confidence in their world to live a happier and more fulfilling life! A graduate of Emily Carr University with over 20 years in the creative industry, her creative profession has taken her around the world and includes opening an award winning design company in London UK. Melissa has explored art therapy education and is completing a diploma in Mindfulness to benefit her company, Doodle Lovely. After her worldly travels, she has come back home to her roots on the east coast of Canada, where she lives with her husband and 2 children in lovely Newfoundland.
