

Company Profile

Pauline Pennell owns a consulting and professional development training company Productivity Tips. Pauline is a Professional Development Trainer and Consultant with more than 35 years experience working with small and medium sized business owners and wanna-be owners, in both the training and consulting capacity.

Pauline's business Productivity Tips specializes in setting up computerized accounting systems for small business owners. Pauline provides one-on-one training in both the bookkeeping and computer skills that are required in order to provide business owners with better management tools. Pauline Pennell is a ProAdvisor with Quick Books and a Premier Advisor with Simply Accounting.

Assisting businesses in identifying their growth potential, conducting business diagnostics which will assist companies with their current processes, human resource structure and financial position, Productivity Tips also completes business plans, marketing plans, and feasibility studies.