

Constanza Safatle

Newbornlander

Avalon Region

After attending university to earning her law degree, Constanza left her practice in Chile, where she co-founded and worked in an entrepreneurship program with women in vulnerable situations, to immigrate to Newfoundland with her husband.

A few months after settling in St. John's, she learned she would have a baby.

That inspired her to create "Newbornlander" Baby Store Inc. social enterprise that manufactures baby accessories intending to create employment opportunities for newcomer women.

Fun Fact: Constanza learned to sew watching videos on YouTube.